HAZTEC® Flame Retardant & Anti-Static Snood

Thermal Snood • Flame Retardant • Anti-Static

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

The HAZTEC® Snood is both flame retardant and anti-static, making it perfect for use in dangerous environments in cold weather. Manufactured in Great Britain, the neck tube is heavyweight and made to a thermal specification, using inherent rather than treated fabric for the highest level of comfort and dexterity while wearing it and has elastane woven into the fabric meaning that it stretches making it easy to wear, and get on and off.
