

RP0041

3M™ Versaflo™ M-306 Helmet

Airfed • Lightweight and Comfortable •
Tough Coated Visor

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Lightweight, compact, with comfort faceseal and easy maintainance, 3M™ Versaflo™ M-Series Airfed headtops can help protect from a variety of respiratory and impact hazards while maintaining comfort for extended periods of use.

FEATURES & BENEFITS

- Highly versatile, integrated protection from a range of respiratory, head (EN397), eye and face (EN166 medium energy impact), and hearing hazards
- Lightweight, compact and well-balanced helmet
- Fully-adjustable suspension that includes textile harness for correct fit and weight distribution
- Deflector allows users to direct the airflow inside the headtop for increased control and comfort
- Visor design combines good peripheral and downward vision with good optical clarity
- Coated polycarbonate visor provides added chemical and scratch resistance
- Can be used with a range of 3M™ Peltor™ hearing protection.

CERTIFICATION

- CE Approved
- EN 12941 TH2/TH3
- EN 14594 3B
- EN 166:2001
- EN 397

For further information and the latest technical specification, please request a copy of the Manufacturers official data sheet. E&O.E.

V1